“From the Pastor’s Desk”

With our last cold-spell behind us, the temperature will likely be 80° or more throughout the days of Summer.

When this happens it’s customary to adjust the way we dress in order to be cooler.

And therefore want to remind you of the guidelines for the proper way to dress when you come to Church.

And 2 descriptors that always apply to appropriate dress for Church are:

Modest and Nice!

Whether it’s Spring, Summer, Fall or Winter, all people are to enter Church dressed modestly and nice.

There’s no need to dress cool as if the temperature in Church would be oppressively hot. Thanks to our heating and cooling systems, you’ll always find the temperature to be most comfortable in Church ... just like in your home and office.

And so, here are the guidelines for Church:

No shorts

No tank tops

No T-shirts

No sleeveless blouses or dresses

No low-cut blouses or dresses

No mini-skirts

These guidelines have been posted in the Vestibule for the past 8 months ... they apply season to season.

Dressing for Mass should be special ... it should mean wearing your “Sunday best”!

A good number of you dress up to go to work every day. And that’s just to meet customers and co-workers.

Well, it makes every bit of sense that you’d also want to dress up on Sunday because then you’re going to have an intimate encounter with the Living Lord!

Our Lectors, Ushers, and Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion have been modeling for years what it means to dress appropriately for Sunday Mass. The men wear suits or sportcoats or at least a nice casual shirt and long slacks. The women wear dresses, or suits, or skirts & blouses.

So please follow the above guidelines and always dress appropriately for Mass ... modestly and nice.

God bless you!

Love, Father Deering
