Lenten Mission

Save the Date:
March 25, 26 and 27, 2019

Preparing yourself for Easter!
 St. Elizabeth Ann Seton will have a Lenten Mission with Fr. John Paul. Confession to be held on Wednesday night after the mission.

A big thank you to Barbara McCray and everyone who helped with last Wednesday XYZ Mass, Lunch and Games! A special thank you to Claude Bauers, who entertained us with a glimpse into his life, which brought him from France, to New York City and on to Alabama. The afternoon was enjoyed by all.

Father Johnson had our PSR Boys to present SEAS Ladies with a Rose for Valentines Day!

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY
 As Paul says, "God chose the weak to confound the strong— God chose the foolish to confound the wise." You see, to many, Christianity just does not make sense, and you and I are just a bunch of clowns. We believe in such impossible things... a God who is one, yet three; a God who was born in a stable and died on a Cross. We try to love God above all things and our neighbor as ourselves. We believe in forgiveness of reaching out to those around us. We even try to care for our world and even those who we do not know or who we will never meet. We believe that when we approach the Altar, we will receive our God in the form of bread and wine. Perhaps we are all a bunch a clowns. Have you ever been to a Rodeo? The cowboys are the apparent heroes of the show. They ride animals with great skill and bravery. Everyone cheers for the cowboy. But when a cowboy is down, thrown from his animal, the clowns enter that dangerous ring with their funny antics and goofy costumes. Some of the clowns distract the animal while other clowns rescue the fallen cowboy and carry him to safety. The crowd roars with laughter. Only at the end does the crowd realize that the clowns are the real heroes of the rodeo. When there is a danger, when there is a need for bravery and compassion, when the fallen need mercy, send in the clowns. As Judi Collins sang years ago, so where are the clowns? There ought to be clowns. Don't worry they're already here... and they are sitting all around you. Good Christian people who keep trying to emulate Christ in their day to day life, not looking for reward, save only to do God's will. This gospel is an invitation to ask ourselves to what extend do we qualify to be called blessed by Jesus. Are we a person whom Jesus would give the name merciful? Are we a person to whom Jesus gives the name peacemaker? Are we a person to whom Jesus would give the name poor in spirit? Do we ever stop to think what it means to be a Christian?
