“From the Pastor’s Desk”

How impressed I am with our new Catholic brothers and sisters! Many of them have demonstrated to me that they really understand God’s expectation that He wants to see them at Mass every Sunday ... for the rest of their life!

How wonderful to see individuals and whole families come together to celebrate the great Mystery of the Mass week after week ... and then to hear how they made a point of attending other Catholic churches when they had to travel away from home for business or vacation.

That’s following God’s Third Commandment ... not just out of duty ... but out of love ... as children gathering to listen and learn from their Father.

Sadly, not everyone feels this way ... many people think vacation means getting away from it all ...including God.

But that should never ever be the case! Summer vacation is indeed a time to take a break from busy routines and schedules but you must always remember ...

There’s no such thing as taking a vacation from God!

Yes, no matter what you do or where you go, it’s essential that you keep your weekly appointment with God!

Whether you’re in the mountains ... or at the lake ... or on the beach ...God’s Third Commandment to “Keep Holy the Lord’s Day” remains in force ... which means that you’re still obliged to attend Mass each and every Sunday of the year.

And you can do this easily with just a little pre-planning by logging into MassTimes.org to find all the nearby Catholic Churches and available Masses wherever you go.

Hopefully, your relationship with God has blossomed into “a love affair” so that you would never dream of missing your Saturday evening or Sunday appointment with God in Church.

While many Protestants feel that they don’t have to go to Sunday Service when they travel because their particular church is way back in Gardendale ... we Catholics understand that no matter where we go, we’re never far from the universal Church where we can celebrate the same Liturgy and receive the same Eucharist as we would back in our home Parish!

So be sure to take advantage of that privilege by scheduling time for Sunday Mass into your Vacation itinerary.

Remember, we’re not doing God a favor by going to Mass ... what we’re doing is giving Him the glory that He demands and deserves... and we’re receiving His blessing!

May your love for God be celebrated wherever you may go!

Love, Father Deering
